RECHARGE FOR RESILIENCY PROGRAMS

Recharge for Resiliency (R4R) is the capstone for resiliency programming across the Air Force. R4R encompasses the following key resiliency components: the Single Airman Programming Initiative (SAPI), Rec-On and Deployed Affected Programming.

SINGLE AIRMAN

SAI: Provides resources that foster a strong culture, mission and sense of community among single Airmen.

DEPLOYED AFFECTED PROGRAMING

Deployed Affected Programming: Provides resources targeting deployed affected and dependant restricted. Air Force installation assigned service members and their families providing relief from the challenges of deployment.

REC-ON

Rec-On: Provides resources for outdoor-centric, high adrenaline, post-deployment stress reduction, only available through FSS Outdoor Recreation Centers.

*Registration and payment are required prior to the day of the trip. All trips are subject to change due to factors beyond the control of Outdoor Recreation.
