Tall Tales:

PINE RIDGE GOLF COURSE, JBMDL

Excitement spread across the links this week when a local turkey reportedly commandeered an unattended golf cart and proceeded to take himself for a leisurely drive around the course.

Witnesses claim the bird showed remarkable confidence behind the wheel, making several turns and cruising past startled golfers without so much as a gobble.

The mysterious driver eventually abandoned the cart near the clubhouse and disappeared into the surrounding woods.

Authorities have issued no warrants, but golfers are advised to guard their carts and their lunch.
